

Basic Responsibilities of the Secretary

The secretary is responsible for keeping an accurate record of the proceedings of association meetings. These records are the permanent history of the PTA. Promptness and accuracy are key to this job.

The secretary also may be given the responsibility of maintaining all PTA correspondence, including incoming and outgoing communications with members and notifications for all meetings. It is common for a local unit to designate these responsibilities to a corresponding secretary.

Prior to a meeting, the secretary:

- Sends an announcement of the meeting (date and time)
- Works with the president to create an agenda
- Sends out the agenda and any pertinent documents necessary prior to the meeting, including the draft of the minutes of the previous meeting

At the meeting, the secretary:

- Takes attendance (by voice vote or sign-in sheet)
- Checks for quorum
- Presents the draft of the minutes of the previous meeting
- Takes minutes
- Counts votes

After the meeting, the secretary:

- Ensures the approved minutes are included in the permanent record of the association

The secretary should have these items on hand at all meetings:

- Minutes of the previous meeting and pertinent attached reports
- List of unfinished business to be discussed
- Agenda
- Current bylaws and standing rules
- Current membership list
- List of committee chairs
- Materials for note/minute taking

Parmalee PTA Responsibilities of the Secretary

Additional Parmalee responsibilities:

- Gather member Monday Messenger submissions and compile them for the weekly Messenger. Submit compiled list to Parmalee office by Monday at 9 a.m.
- Participate as an officer when there are issues that require executive committee decisions.
